'Y' Training Lead - PLX compatible QD to QD

The BL-11+P is a 'Y' Training Lead that allows supervisors to listen to an agent's call during a training/coaching session and take control if needed. The lead has a QD connection at one end of the lead that plugs into the QD of your desk phone bottom lead and two QD's for headset connection.

Bottom Leads connect your headset to your telephone.

PLX = JPL's Quick Disconnect Technology compatible with Plantronics™ QD's.
